UNISON PRAYER Liturgist

Let us Pray:

The Exodus is the story of our lives. We are being called out of slavery into the promised land. Some travel this trip from our past into our future with Joy and Expectancy. For some of us, each new day, each new hour, each new second is received as a wonderful adventure and gift. But, there are others among us, who travel with grumblings and complaints. We choose to make this trip today as a holy and God honoring journey! We choose to use every moment, every place we go, and every experience we have as an opportunity to become all God wants us to be. We choose to make this journey a delight for ourselves and for all those around us!

We remember how Jesus said to Peter, "Come, follow me." And we remember how Jesus said to Matthew, "Come, follow me." And how Jesus said to two would-be disciples, "Come." And Jesus said to the disciples, "Let us go across to the other side of the sea." Jesus said to the disciples, "Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so I can preach in them too." In another place we read, "Jesus went before them, and they were amazed."

Jesus, call us to follow, we want to go with you. Call us to come out of the boat and we shall try walking on the water. We want to go where you go, and do what you do. We declare: "Where he leads me, I will follow! Where he leads me, I will follow! Where he leads me, I will follow! I'll go with him, with him, ALL THE WAY! In the name of Jesus, and by his mighty grace, we will accept and receive the journey you have for us today. Amen.
