Liturgist: After six days Jesus led Peter, James, and John to the top of a high mountain apart by themselves. The disciples had no clue as to what they were about to see!
People: And there between the earth and heaven, Jesus began to change and glisten.
Liturgist: The scripture says he underwent a metamorphosis, a transfiguration. His clothes began to shine brighter and whiter than any clothes made by humans.
People: His face began to radiate a brilliant light, and it shone brighter than the sun.
Liturgist: Peter later said, "We were eyewitnesses of his majesty upon the holy mountain when he received honor and glory from God the Father."
People: And then, Moses and Elijah came and stood next to Jesus on the mountain. The disciples said, "It is a good thing we are here. Let us make three huts, one for each of you to dwell in."
Liturgist: As soon as they had said this, a cloud descended upon the mountain, and a voice came out of the cloud, saying to them, "This is my beloved Son! Listen to Him!"
