Liturgist: Let us encounter you this day, O Living God! Speak to us in the four ways you so often reveal your truth to us.

People: Above all, speak to us this morning through the Holy Scriptures.

Liturgist: Second, speak to us through holy Tradition: the wisdom and learnings of our Christian predecessors who encountered you, O God, in ages past.

People: Third, speak to us through our own personal experiences of your Spirit's power and presence.

Liturgist: Fourth, speak to us through our minds by giving us insight, intelligence, reason, and rationality.

People: Speak, Lord, we your servants are listening! Amen.

Unison Prayer:

Liturgist

Have thine own way, Lord! We gather on this first day of this new week to offer you all that we have, and all that we are, and all that we may become. We dedicate to you our body, mind, soul, and spirit and ask that what happens here in our church would be fully acceptable in your sight. May we this day be transformed in any way you desire. We hold nothing back. Use us and teach us that we may serve you and our neighbors. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.
