*Call to Worship (Zechariah 9:9) Liturgist

Liturgist: As we share in today's Call to Worship, there are parts for Men and for Women, and for the those on the Right Side and those on the Left Side.

Liturgist: Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion!

People: Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem!

Right Side: Lo, your king comes to you;

Left Side: triumphant and victorious is he!

Men: He is humble and riding on the foal of a donkey.

Women: The great crowd that had come to the festival heard that Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem.

Left Side: They took palm branches and went out to meet him.

Right Side: As they met him, they were shouting, "Hosanna!"

Men: "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"

Women: "Blessed is the king of Israel!"

Liturgist: "Do not be afraid, Daughter Zion."

People: "See, your king is coming, seated on a donkey's colt."

Almighty God, on this day your Son Jesus Christ entered the holy city of Jerusalem and was proclaimed King by those who spread their garments and palm branches along his way so the donkey that carried him could walk upon them. Let those branches be for us signs of his victory, and let those garments laid upon the dusty road remind us that we too would gladly lay all things before him, so that we can follow him in the way that leads to eternal life. In his name we pray. Amen.
