ANNOUNCEMENTS Liturgist

*CALL TO WORSHIP (Let us stand as we are able) Liturgist

Liturgist: Let us worship the Lord Jesus our Christ! For he is the same yesterday and today and forever! His coming was long promised by the prophets. And when the time had come, he was born of the Virgin Mary.

People: Yes! Let us worship the Lord Jesus who was filled with the Holy Spirit at his baptism, and was tempted by Satan but refused to worship the evil one.

Liturgist: Jesus went about healing the sick, casting out demons, and doing good. He raised people from death, did miracles, and proclaimed that God's Kingdom was coming upon earth. He ministered to Jews and Gentiles and tore down the dividing wall between them. On a high mountain he was transfigured, his clothes began to glisten, and his face began to radiate—brighter than the sun.

People: He rode into Jerusalem on donkey as his followers waved palm branches and called him King. He cleaned out the temple, and preached that God's house was for all people. He shared communion with his disciples before he was arrested. He endured an illegal trial, was beaten, tortured, and killed on a cross.

Liturgist: On the third day he arose from the dead, For forty days he lived among the people showing them many convincing proofs that he was alive. Then he ascended into heaven and took his place at the right hand of Glory.

People: Today he reigns as the Lord of lords and King of kings. He imparts the Holy Spirit into us, so that we might live as he did with the same Spirit that was in him. Yes! Let us worship Jesus the Christ!

Unison Prayer: Liturgist
Living God, you speak to your people with many languages. You speak to us through dreams and visions, through prophets and preachers. You speak through angels, and Scripture, and songs and liturgy. You speak directly to us by your Holy Spirit and through the Living Jesus. You speak to us through the languages of every nation and the language of heaven itself. We ask you to speak to us in any way that you choose, regardless of whether your method or your message comforts us or shakes us up! Speak to us this day and every day, that we may hear your truth and live with obedience. In the mighty name of the Jesus. Amen.
